

BRANDE PA'TRICE

RECORDING ARTIST / ENTERTAINER

Brande Pa'trice is a dynamic American Pop/Rap recording artist, pianist, songwriter, and choreographer from Memphis, TN. A graduate of Texas Southern University with a BA in Entertainment and the Recording Industry, she also holds a Certification in Music Business from Houston Community College and is an alumna of Phi Theta Kappa International Honor Society. Her vibrant stage presence is enhanced by her background in dance, majorette performance, and choreography, having served as majorette captain for Texas Southern University's "Ocean of Soul Marching Band." Notably, Brande has performed at major events like Super Bowl XXXVIII alongside Janet Jackson, Nelly, Diddy, and Kid Rock, and at the Harlem Globetrotters' halftime show.

Brande's music career took off with her 2015 EP Baddie Boss and the single "Bouji," showcasing her bold, unapologetic energy. She continued to push creative boundaries with projects like Finger Waves & Cupcakes (2017), Bad B Certified (2018), and Pink Cadillac Dreams (2020). Known for her versatility, she's delivered holiday hits like "Have Yourself a Merry Christmas" (2021) and rock-inspired anthems such as "Sexfidence" (2021). In recent years, she's released bold projects like B'Academy: A Ghetto High School Musical (2022), TNT (Teeth & Titties) (2023), and continues to evolve with upcoming releases like Band-Aid Love (2024).

Beyond music, Brande is a dedicated mentor, choreographing for over 3,000 children across Memphis and Houston. She's the author of I Want to Be a Majorette, a children's book dedicated to the Memphis Public Library, inspiring young baton twirlers to pursue their dreams. As a philanthropist, Brande leads an annual Feed the Homeless event, emphasizing her commitment to supporting the homeless and individuals with behavioral health challenges. Through her artistry and activism, Brande Pa'trice embodies creativity, resilience, and community leadership.
